

LWV-PA 8th Annual Climate Change Forum

Capturing Carbon and Cooling Our Cities: Two Approaches to Climate Change

SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 2019

9:00 a.m. – noon; Doors open at 8:30 a.m.

Fellowship Hall at First United Methodist Church

500 East Colorado Blvd. Pasadena, CA 91101

Handicap accessible. Free parking (100 spaces) adjacent to Church off Green St.

Please car pool if possible.

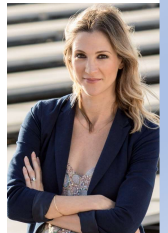

Free public event with light refreshments provided.

Carbon Capture and Storage: Challenges and Possibilities

Speaker: Prof. Jess Adkins
Caltech Professor of Geochemistry and Global Environmental Science

How to Keep Our Cities Cool: the LA Experience

Speaker: Lauren Faber O'Connor
Chief Sustainability Officer
Office of Los Angeles Mayor Garcetti

Co-sponsors:

Citizens' Climate Lobby – Pasadena Foothills
EDEN (All Saints Environmental Ministry)
Neighborhood Church Green Council
Sierra Club Pasadena Chapter
Transition Pasadena

Climate Resolve
Interfaith Power and Light
Risk Taking Mission: First United Methodist Church
Throop Unitarian Universalist Church

The League of Women Voters, a political organization that neither supports nor opposes particular candidates or parties, encourages informed and active participation in government, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

626-798-0965 E-mail: office@lwv-pa.org website: www.lwv-pa.org

Pasadena Media, LWV-PA's Media Partner, 150 S Los Robles Ave #101, Pasadena, CA 91101, 626-794-858 info@pasadenamedia.org